The Competence Standard

ICB 3.0 VISION

1.02 Interested parties

Interested parties are people or groups, who are interested in the performance and/or success of the project, or who are constrained by the project.

The project is constrained by its context and may be adjusted to meet the interested parties' needs. Their expectations also need to be managed.

1.07 Teamwork

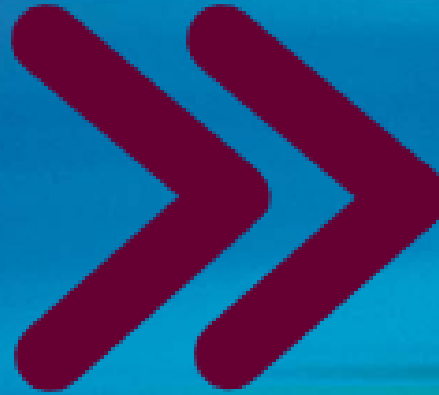

Projects are performed by teams of people, who are usually brought together specifically for the purpose of the project.

Teams are groups of people who work together to realise specific objectives.
