

IPMA ITALY

INTRODUCTORY CERTIFICATE IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT

POLITECNICO DI TORINO – MAY 26, 2017

IPMA ITALY - ITALIAN CERTIFICATION BODY
SESSION RESERVED FOR POLITECNICO DI TORINO
May 26, 2017 3.30 pm - Classroom 14

REGULATION OF THE CERTIFICATION PROCEDURE

I. Entry to the session

The access to Session is reserved to students who:

- a. have successfully passed the exam in Project Management;
- b. have taken vision of this document;
- c. have registered at IPMA Italy. The form is available online at www.ipma.it (IPMA Certification> IPMA Italy Introductory Certificate (to go directly there click here));
- d. have finalized the registration by paying the fee (€ 90 + VAT). As indicated in the registration form, payment can be made online either by bank transfer or credit card.
For payments via bank transfer it is recommended to specify the reason: IPMA Italy Introductory Exam – Politecnico di Torino.
- e. The payment of the fee includes:
 - i. the IPMA Young Crew Italy membership fee (valid until 31.12.2017);
 - ii. the book in electronic format IPMA ICB 3.0 Individual Competence Baseline developed by IPMA;
 - iii. for those who pass the certification, the Certificate and the registration in the official certified IPMA Italy register;
 - iv. the right to apply to the IPMA Level D certification at the discounted price of € 510 + VAT.
- f. Registration must be formalized at the latest within 15 days from the date of certification session. For subsequent requests after this deadline IPMA Italy reserves the right to accept or not the enrollment.

II. Document package

Once registered as described at the previous points the candidate will automatically get via email the IPMA ICB book and a workbook (only available in Italian language).

III. Certification procedure

1) Objective

Certify that the candidate knows and has acquired the theoretical skills relating to the fundamental methodologies, internationally recognized, which are required for the Project Management.

2) Who is it for?

The certification is aimed at those who are approaching the project management discipline and who have studied the basic methods for the conduct of the projects, either through participation in internal courses to companies, both for the students, by attending courses on Project Management within the various degree courses currently offered by Italian Universities.

3) Certification Body

Certification is carried by the IPMA - Italian Certification Body, accredited in Italy by the International Project Management Association for the Certification of project managers according to IPMA methodology

4) Test Content

The test aims to check the knowledge of the 20 "elements" which cover the Technical Project Management Skills described in the IPMA ICB book.

5) Official Certification Title

"Introductory Certificate in Project Management"

PROCEDURE

6) The Process

The examination process of certification is managed by the IPMA - Italian Certification Body. The entire evaluation process follows the general rules as set by IPMA for the Certification of Project Managers

7) The Test

The test is made up by 30 multiple choice questions prepared by an IPMA - Italian Certification Body accredited Assessor

8) Rules

The questions are given to the candidates in a paper format. Candidates can only use the provided sheets. Candidates are not allowed during the test to consult any documentation and are requested to switch off mobile phones and computers.

9) Test duration

The time available to candidates, to answer the 30 questions, is 70 minutes

10) Surveillance

The surveillance is in charge to the IPMA - Italian Certification Body officers

11) Test evaluation

The test evaluation is made by IPMA - Italian Certification Body officers

12) Scoring

The exam is passed if the candidate provides at least 20 correct answers to the 30 questions.

13) Registration fee

The examination fee is not refundable. In case of failure to participate, the candidate can one year from the date of their registration, to request participation in another session.

14) Result and Certificate handover

The names of all those who get the certificate will be entered in the Register of Official Certificates IPMA www.ipma.it Italy and published on the website within 30 days from the date of certification session.

IPMA Italy releases the official certificate "Introductory Certificate in Project Management" which will be forwarded in hard copy to the attention of Prof. Carlo Rafele who ensure the delivery to the candidate.

The Introductory Certificate has no expiry date.

15) Those who do not pass the test?

Those who do not pass the exam will receive individual communications via e-mail sent by the IPMA - Italian Certification Body.

The candidate has the right to retake the exam attending a new Certification session (see Exam retaking).

16) Exam retaking

The candidate has the right to attend a new Certification session at no extra charge.

The candidate keeps this right for 12 months from the date of attended Certification session.

Expired this period time the candidate loses the right to participate without additional cost.

IPMA Italy does not guarantee that the session is carried out in the same location of the first session.

Whenever IPMA Italy shouldn't plan any certification session within 12 months, the candidate will be entitled to participate to the first planned session even beyond the 12 months time limit.

It is a candidate's responsibility to check the dates of the planned certification sessions and published on the www.ipma.it site.

In case the candidate should fail even the second test the access to a new certification session requires the full payment of the fee.

ANIMP / IPMA ITALY

c / o ANIMP Via E. Tazzoli 6 - 20154 Milan

Tel. +39 0267100740 - Fax +39 0267071785

E-mail: certificazioneipma@animp.it - Italian Website www.ipma.it

International Website <http://www.ipma.world>