QUICK AND EASY GUIDE

International Project management competition

GeCCo is the 24h worldwide event, where people from all over the world in teams are solving a project management case study. The Jury then evaluate the work and decide, which is the best (and the winning) team

Work across time zones

GeCCo participants get to work across different time zones, as the team members come from different countries

Case study

Teams will be given a project management case study that has to be solved

Keynote speakers

Participants will be able to watch and listen to selected keynote speakers during the competition

Intercultural communication

Participants get the opportunity to excel their intercultural communication skills as they have team members from any of the countries participating in GeCCo

24 hours to go

The case study has to be solved within 24 hours

Virtual environment

All stages of competition are done by using modern e-communication means
