The exam registration fee is non-refundable. In case of non-participation, the candidate has up to one year from the date of registration to request participation in another session. After this period, the candidate loses the right to participation.

i. Test Result

IPMA Italy will communicate the test result, positive or negative, via email directly to the candidate.

The grades of the test will not be published or communicated in case of obtaining the certification or not passing the test. Requests by the candidate to view the test performed are not accepted. It is also not possible to request additional personal feedback or further detailed explanations.

I. Those who pass the test - Register and Certificate

Within 7 working days from the date of the certification session:

The names of all those who obtain the Certification will be included in the Official Register of IPMA Italy Certificates and published on the website www.ipma.it;

IPMA Italy will issue the official certificate "Introductory Certificate in Project Management", which will be sent via email to students in PDF format with digital signature.

The Introductory Certificate has unlimited duration.

m. Those who do not pass the test

The candidate who does not pass the test will have the opportunity to retake the exam in a subsequent Introductory Level session. The candidate can participate only once in the second test without any additional cost. The candidate retains this right for 12 months from the date of the certification session that was not passed. After this period, the candidate loses the right to participation without additional cost. If IPMA Italy does not organize any certification session within the 12 months, the candidate has the right to participate in the first available session even if it is more than 12 months after the previously indicated period. If the candidate does not pass the appeal test either, if interested, he/she must register for a new certification session by paying the fee specified by the regulations.

n. Registration if the first test is not passed

It is the candidate's responsibility to check the dates of the available exam sessions by consulting the ipma.it website at the following link, where ongoing sessions are regularly published.

To register for the second test, the candidate must send a communication to certificazioneintroductory@animp.it providing the following information: name and surname, university of affiliation, date of the first exam session, date of the chosen exam session for the second test. IPMA Italy reserves the right to admit the candidate to the session based on availability.
